The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday July 2. to Tuesday July 5. 1737.

Petersbourg, June 11, O. S.

LAST Thurſday M. Hahn arrived here from Courland, to inform Count Biron, that on the 2d Inſtant all the Nobleſſe of that Country met at Mittau: Two Letters were read in the Aſſembly, one from the Prince of Heſſe Hombourg, and the other from the Prince of Bevern, who is a Lieutenant Colonel in the Pruſſian Service; by which Letters they recommended themſelves as Candidates to ſucceed the late Duke; but no body ſpeaking in their Favour, the Aſſembly was for ſome time ſilent, till M. Mireback got up and ſaid, he thought none ſo worthy to govern them as Count Biron, a Native of their Country, who by his good Offices had preſerved their Rights and Liberties; to which the Aſſembly unanimouſly agreed, and immediately ſent the abovenamed M. Hahn to deſire Count Biron to accept of the Dutchy, which he has accordingly done, and all the Foreign Miniſters and Perſons of Diſtinction here have made him their Compliments on his Election. Two Days ago a Courier arrived here from Felt Marſhal Munich, with Advice, that he was continuing his March towards the River Bog, in order to advance to Oczakow.

Vienna, June 29, N. S. Letters from Belgrade of the 22d Inſtant give an Account, that Field Marſhal Count Seckendorf, after having viſited Prince Hildburghauſen's Quarters in Croatia, and concerted with him the military Operations, came thither the 18th. That on the 21ſt the Duke of Lorrain, with his Brother Prince Charles, arrived likewiſe at Belgrade, and his Royal Highneſs was received with due Honours by the Field Marſhal and all the General Officers with him. Proper Diſpoſitions were making for ſpeedily opening the Campaign.

Berlin, July 6, N. S. The King of Pruſſia, who came hither from Potzdam two Days ago, ſets out this Evening for Pomerania, whither all the Generals and Colonels whoſe Regiments are quartered in that Province have repaired ſome Weeks ago, in order to be reviewed with their reſpective Corps by his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Hague, July 12, N. S. The States of Holland have diſpoſed to Day of all the military Employments vacant in their Department. The moſt conſiderable was the Regiment of Foot Guards, the Command of which they have given to Brigadier Vanderduyn, and M. de Slippenbach is to have the Regiment of Dragoons vacant by the Removal of the ſaid Brigadier Vanderduyn. The College of Nobles have likewiſe this Morning elected into their Body, and preſented to the States of Holland, two new Members, viz. M. de Boetſelaer, eldeſt Son to the deceaſed M. Boetſelaer, and at preſent one of the Deputies of the Admiralty of Amſterdam, and M. Waſſenaer, Counſellor of the Court of Juſtice. The War between the Emperor and the Turks is no more doubted of here, the laſt Letters from Vienna bringing an Account, that Count Seckendorff was ordered to declare the ſame to the Baſha commanding on the Frontiers; and the Emperor's Manifeſto is expected here every Day.

Whitehall, July 5.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint James Oglethorpe, Eſq; to be General and Commander in Chief of all and ſingular his Majeſty's Forces employed and to be employed in his Majeſty's Provinces of South Carolina and Georgia in America; and likewiſe to be Captain of that Independent Company of Foot doing Duty in his Majeſty's ſaid Province of South Carolina, whereof Edward Maſſey, Eſq; was late Captain.
